GUIDELINES/CHECK LIST WHEN INSTALLING LAMINATE FLOORING

SITE CONDITIONS

- 1. HUMIDITY LEVELS - Between 45% + 65%
- 2. ALLOWABLE MOISTURE CONTENT - Concrete Subfloors or Timber Sub Floors should have a Moisture Content of 3% or Below
- 3. SUB-FLOOR LEVELS - Should not be more than 3mm over a 1m distance in any direction.

FLOORING ACCLIMATISATION

- 1. 48HR ACCLIMATISATION- Store your Laminate floors for 48Hrs in un-opened Boxes flat on the ground in the room the floor is being laid. Living conditions in the room should be normal with the Heating on.
- 2. UNDERFLOOR HEATING - Ensure each pack of flooring is resting flat on the ground Separately.
- 3. INCORRECT CONDITIONS - Your Floor will not acclimatise if the room is cold or if wet trades are being carried out such as painting or plastering.
 - ONCE ACCLIMATISED YOUR LAMINATE FLOOR MAY EXPAND OR SHRINK SLIGHTLY.
 - IT IS NOT UNCOMMON TO SEE BOWING IN EACH PLANK. THIS IS NOT A DEFECT.
 - IT IS THE HDF CORE ACCLIMATING TO THE HEAT + HUMIDITY OF THE ROOM.

EXPANSION JOINTS

- 1. 10MM- A metre of laminate flooring can undergo dimensional fluctuations of about a millimetre. This is why it is critical to leave 10mm expansion gap around walls, door frames, stairs, pipes so forth.
- 2. EXPANSION JOINTS BETWEEN ROOMS- This is absolutely essential. Room Humidity can vary owing to different heat conditions, etc. We therefore recommend that expansion joints are used under the doors between rooms.
- 3. EXPANSION JOINTS IN LARGE ROOMS- If a room is more than 8M wide and/or 12M Long, additional expansion joints are required. If a room is over 25m long several expansion joints will be necessary.
- 4. HEAVY OBJECTS- Do not rest Heavy Objects on top of your Laminate floor. Max allowable weight 200kg.

These objects include:

- * Island Units
- * Kitchen Units
- * Grand Piano
- * Fireplaces

Failure to adhere to above will restrict movement and most likely cause issues with peaking.

UNFORTUNATELY IF CONDITIONS LAID OUT ABOVE ARE NOT ADHERED TO WE WILL NOT BE ABLE TO ENTERTAIN ANY CLAIMS THAT ARISE FROM YOUR FLOOR INSTALLATION.
